

Ron Robson

FOUNDING MEMBER
BOARD PRESIDENT

Ron is the former COO of Aldevron, LLC. He earned a BS in Aerospace Engineering from Texas A&M. He has decades of startup experience and ownership, as well as non-profit experience with the F5 Project and Valley Christian Counseling Center in Fargo. Ron serves the Capstone board as chairman and provides leadership in facilities, business, and legal matters. Having witnessed the effects of a classical education as a Hillsdale College Trustee, he desires to offer the same valuable education to families in Fargo. He and his wife, Dawn, make their home in Fargo and are members of Holy Resurrection Orthodox Church; they have an adult daughter in Fargo and a son at Notre Dame Law School.

Terinne Berg

FOUNDING MEMBER
BOARD SECRETARY

Terinne is the former Superintendent of Park Christian School. She has an M.Ed. in Education Administration, which she has applied to 19 years in Christian school administration, and has been trained in policy governance by John and Mariam Carver. She is currently the owner of Raising the B.A.R. Consulting, which serves local non-profits. Terinne brings board experience from service to the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Northern Plains, Great Plains Evangelical Foundation, M State Foundation and Alumni, Valley Christian Counseling Center, and Jail Chaplains. She has also served on the education committee of the Moorhead Chamber of Commerce. Terinne is passionate about Capstone Classical Academy because she believes God is opening the door to provide an effective, unique, and much needed form of PreK-12 Christian education to our growing community. She and her husband, Al, have been married for over 40 years and are proud parents to two adult sons and grandparents to four grandchildren. Terinne and her husband, Al, attend Calvary Fargo.

Larry Nygard

FOUNDING MEMBER
BOARD TREASURER

Larry is the President of Crown Development and former President of Roers Development. He holds a B.S. in Accounting and Business Management from Moorhead State University. He has worked in real estate development for over 30 years, with projects in the upper Midwest and Cape Coral area of Florida. He serves as board member of the North Dakota Housing Finance Agency and has extensive experience helping non-profits solve their real estate needs. Larry assists the Capstone board with facilities planning and management as well as business strategy. He and his wife, June, have three married sons and two grandchildren. They enjoy spending time at the lake, celebrating the 4th of July, and hunting. He believes Capstone's emphasis on the True, the Good, and the Beautiful will cultivate young adults who can think critically and speak well. Larry is a member at Bethel Church.

Dawn Robson

FOUNDING MEMBER

Dawn is the founder and owner of Refresh Equine Assisted Learning. She has a B.A. in nursing, holds certificates in Life Coaching from the American Association of Christian Counselors and the John Maxwell Team, and she is currently working toward certification in Natural Lifemanship. She has operated as a philanthropist with numerous organizations and continues to organize non-profit operations today. She assists the Capstone board with parent and donor outreach. She is passionate about classical education as it promotes excitement for learning and the pursuit of virtues and the Good, the True, and the Beautiful. She has been married to her husband, Ron, for 30 years. Dawn is a member of Holy Resurrection Orthodox Church.

Al Berg

FOUNDING MEMBER

Al is founder and owner of Premier Benefits Group, where he has served the insurance needs of the Fargo-Moorhead community for over 30 years. Al supports the work of Capstone Classical Academy with business and sales consulting, community engagement, and legislative engagement and outreach. Al has been married to his wife, Terinne, for over 40 years and is the proud parent of two adult sons and grandparent of four grandchildren. He and his wife, Terinne, attend Calvary Fargo.

June Nygard

FOUNDING MEMBER

June is the former marketing and admissions director for another Christian school. She holds a B.A. in marketing from the University of North Dakota. In her time serving Christian education, she has helped plan and implement the expansion of a high school and a second campus. She currently serves as a board member for Valley Christian Counseling Center and volunteers for ND Family Alliance. June assists the Capstone board with marketing, community outreach, and fundraising. She believes that the Capstone model is the best way to reach children and teach according to their God-given strengths. She is a member at Bethel Church.

Luke Robson

FOUNDING MEMBER

BOARD MEMBER

Luke is a graduate of Hillsdale College and current JD candidate at the University of Notre Dame Law School. He has worked for multiple governors and has experience starting businesses and identifying opportunities for economic and community growth. In college, Luke experienced firsthand the transformative experiences that a classical education provides and is excited to bring a Pre-K-12 classical education to North Dakota. Luke is a member of the Orthodox Church of America and attends Holy Resurrection Church in Fargo and Holy Ascension Church in Albion, MI, while in law school. He is engaged to Emma Peters, a 2nd grade teacher at Will Carleton Academy in Hillsdale, MI. Luke and Emma will be moving back to Fargo after their marriage.

Rachelle Lee

FOUNDING MEMBER

BOARD MEMBER

Rachelle is an RN-Screening educator at Sanford Health. She holds a BSN. She has two years of teaching experience as an adjunct faculty member at a local college, as well as multiple years of board experience at another Christian school. Rachelle assists the Capstone board with community outreach and engagement. She is drawn to classical education because its framework is built upon the framework of child development and fosters curiosity, passion for learning, critical thinking, eloquence, and the art of persuasion. Rachelle, her husband, Chris, and their three children attend Bethel Church.

Chris Lee
